

I am opposed to the recent changes made by the FCC to broadcast ownership rules. This concentration of media ownership will lead to a limiting of the free flow of information in our society, and that will undermine a basic tenet of our democracy. I urge you to reconsider this recent ruling.